430 The Terrace, Port Pirie

4 Bedroom Home with Detached Self Contained Unit

This outstanding family home is set in a great location and is close to quality schools and the golf course.

All 4 bedrooms of this double brick home are of a generous size and include built-in cupboards while the main bedroom has a ceiling fan. The formal lounge room is kept comfortable all year round via a split system air conditioner and also includes a built in display cupboard. Ducted evaporative cooling services the home throughout with the spacious dining room offering an abundance of natural light and opens to the kitchen with ample cupboards. The tiled bathroom has a bath, shower with neat vanity and separate toilet. Set at the rear of the home is a light and airy sun room which is a perfect place to sit for morning tea and soak up the view of the delightful easy care gardens.

There is the added bonus of a large detached, fully contained unit and would be ideal to accommodate your parents/in-laws or perhaps the perfect teenage retreat. It offers a kitchenette, bathroom and a large living area. Other external features of this family home include a carport, shade house/bird avery, a 8000 litre rain water tank, 3 large garden sheds and paved front and rear yards.
