At Any Stage of Life, This Home Will Suit

Young families, first home buyers or retirees, be quick to inspect this neat 1982 built brick veneer home situated on an approx. 784 square metre allotment offering beautiful views of the Flinders Ranges. The elegant formal lounge room features an open fire place & rack ceiling while the kitchen includes a stainless steel oven, pantry cupboard & breakfast bar overlooking the meals area. All 3 bedrooms are of a double size with the master featuring a walk-in robe, ensuite and a split system air conditioner. This home has the added bonus of a large 2nd living area which has a split-system air conditioner and a sliding door opening to the external entertaining area. Other external features include a rear verandah, established gardens, rain water tank, a double garage with power and concrete floor and a side carport with a roller door. This home has plenty of great features on offer and is well worth the inspection.
