

78 Wandearah Road, Port Pirie

Position, Street Appeal & Full of Character

What a great opportunity to purchase a stone villa with a returned verandah in a prime location. The home is full of character and has huge potential to add your own finishing touches. Just a few of the features include lofty press tin ceilings, high skirting boards, leadlight entrance, picture rails and open fire places. There are 3 bedrooms and the master bedroom has built-in robes, ceiling fan and ensuite with twin hand basins, second bedroom has large built-in cupboards and ceiling fan while the 3rd bedroom is of a good size and has a ceiling fan. The main bathroom is tiled in a heritage feel including bath and shower alcove. The kitchen has ample timber cupboards, the convenience of a dishwasher and electric oven/hot plate and there is a large dining/family room with timber framed windows to allow the natural light to glow through and overlooks the leafy gardens. The massive lounge has a tiled cast fireplace with access to the returned verandah. There is the added bonus of having ducted reverse air conditioning throughout the home which allows comfort all year round.
