5 Kaeleen Court, Port Pirie

A Divine Family Home

Situated in an excellent location overlooking an established park stands this quality home built in 2007. With a beautiful street appeal and manicured front yard your first impression will be lasting. Upon entering this outstanding home you'll instantly appreciate the space that is on offer. The master bedroom features an ensuite & walk-in robe, while bedrooms 2, 3 & 4 include built-ins and are serviced by the main bathroom. Tiled floors flow throughout the main living areas of this spectacular home & into the large kitchen which features a walk-in pantry & a large breakfast bar overlooking the 2nd living/dining area which then opens to the spacious home theatre/family room. A formal lounge/office is positioned to the front of this home while the entire home is comforted all year round via the refrigerated reverse cycle air conditioner while a sliding door from the dining room leads to the beautiful gable roof entertaining area featuring ceiling fans & a TV point which then overlooks the sparkling swimming pool. Other features include a double carport UMR with direct access to the house, a double shed, garden shed, rain water tanks & neat yards with extensive paving. This could be the change you've been waiting for, call now to arrange your inspection.
