32 Tenth Street, Port Pirie

Family Home with Hassle Free Lifestyle Awaits

Take advantage of this property situated on a corner allotment which would appeal to a range of buyers. Entering the home you are immediately greeted by the free flowing and spacious kitchen, living and dining area with a functional kitchen complete with timber cupboards, stainless steel in bench oven and gas cooktop while the rest of the area is open and ready for you to add your own personal touches and design your ideal living space with ducted air conditioning throughout. The 3 carpeted bedrooms are generous in size and serviced by the convenient and expansive 3 way bathroom which is neat and tidy while offering a corner spa and separate shower alcove, powder room with storage space and toilet area. The home has a large laundry area with the convenience of a 2nd toilet and opening to the outside featuring a large rear entertaining pergola area and established yards. This property provides the perfect opportunity for the first home buyer wanting to enter the real estate market.
