Not Often Homes of this Calibre Hit the Market

Rarely does a property become available in Port Pirie's Glynde estate that is so spacious with a fabulous floorplan that will surely win your heart the moment you step inside. When designing and building this home, every detail has been thoughtfully chosen as it offers all the extravagant features you could ever desire in your dream home.

The sense of luxury is immediately apparent upon arrival and you are first greeted by the large formal lounge/living space with natural light and bulkhead corning while the wide hallway with downlights flow through into the heart of the home with floating floors throughout, being the generous sized open plan kitchen/dining and kitchen area where endless time will be spent. The gourmet kitchen includes abundance of modern kitchen cabinetry along with stunning marble benchtops and breakfast bar, stainless steel appliances including gas burner cooktop, under bench oven and a dishwasher. The butler's pantry is hidden away however allows for a huge amount of clutter free storage space. This space really needs to be seen in person to fully appreciate the size and the flawless finishes throughout.
